

ELIZABETH HALL, ED.M.

WWW.HALLEducationalResources.COM

ABOUT:

FOUNDER | PRINCIPAL CONSULTANT

Elizabeth is the founder of Hall Educational Resources and the proud parent of three young adult children. One was diagnosed with dyslexia in first grade, another with auditory processing deficits and the third with advanced capabilities and no learning disabilities.

Elizabeth and her team are leading independent school admissions experts with expertise on New England boarding and day schools. Her team has a shared passion for engaging students' talents & intellect, guiding them to private schools where they will realize their full potential.

In her spare time, Elizabeth loves watching her daughter's college soccer games and her son's musical theater performances. When traveling to boarding school campuses, you'll also find her snapping pictures at any old fashioned diners!

Degrees:

Education | Sociology | Spanish | Business

Certifications:

MBTI Certified Practitioner | Certificate Professional Coach | Behavioral Interviewing

Elizabeth Hall

SUGGESTED QUESTIONS:

- What does an educational consultant do that I can't do?
- How do educational consultants help students with complex profiles?
- How do educational consultants stay current with evolving trends and campus cultures?
- How do I parent my child if they're in a boarding school?
- What aspects of private schools help kids thrive?
- How can parents build self-esteem and confidence in students with learning differences?

Contact: Elizabeth@HallEducationalResources.com  in/elizabeth-l-hall  @HallEducational

SUGGESTED TOPICS:

- Building Confidence & Self-Esteem in Students Who Learn Differently
- Private School 101: What Do Parents Need to Know About Private Schools?
- Boarding School 101: What Do Parents Need to Know About Boarding Schools?
- How Boarding Schools Help Neurodiverse Learners Thrive
- Building Confidence & Self-Esteem in Students Who Learn
- How the Pandemic Has Impacted Private School Admissions
- How to Support Learners Who Struggle with Anxiety
- Defining Dyslexia as a Strength
- How Educational Consultants Help Families Find the Best-Fit Schools

FEATURED ON:

www.HallEducationalResources.com